

Thanks for praying!

Please continue praying as we go to Colombia for the fifth time and for the second time with David & Margot Woodworth.

Assemblies of God missionaries work very hard to train and develop a strong church within foreign countries. Political situations change, missionaries never know when they might be forced to leave an area. So it is important to have effective, Spirit-filled believers in place, leading the church in these countries.

God has allowed Barb and I to see many exciting things in our travels. One of the greatest is when national A/G leaders in a country realize that their country is not just a mission field but that it can become a missionary sending country as well. They understand that the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20) applies to them.

David and Margot Woodworth train Colombians to be missionaries to the different Indian cultures within Colombia and to other countries. ~ God Bless, Mac

Colombia is always a bit scary so the faithfulness of all you dear prayer warriors is highly appreciated.

Please prayer for good health, travel mercies, safety, great photo opportunities, creativity for the DVDs overall appearance, and stamina/endurance while working on the editing portions. (Each minute in the promo takes about 10 hours of editing after we completed all the videotaping.)

I (Barb) continue to work on the parenting workbook, so I would appreciate prayer for time to fit that into my schedule during our quieter moments.

My Dad celebrated his 90th Birthday recently and his health is failing. I would also appreciate prayer that I remember to trust God's perfect timing during the next months or years until my Dad's safe arrival in heaven.

My sister is a major part of my parent's care team. She and I hope to travel between our homes (Spokane and Kingman) during the next few months. I would appreciate prayer that the airline miles we collected are enough to get us to both places; also travel safety.

Finally (it's a big list huh), God's encouraging me to do a class for the teens of our church called: GET SMART. We will cover topics like Obedience vs. Rebellion; Anger/Violence, Betrayal/Forgiveness; Communication; Boundaries: Food, Money and Sex; and Choosing a Spouse. There will be about 8 sessions in all. I hope to begin classes in mid September scheduling them around our travels.

Thanks so much dear, dear ones for ALL You do on our behalf as You pray to our ABBA!

Love and BIG Hugs, Barb
